

2024 ArtsNational Arts Talks Narrabri

Monday 4 March 7pm
Sculpture & Architecture David Worthington

This lecture will trace the history of the relationship showing how, in an age of computer-aided design, an understanding of sculpture is more important than ever for architecture.

Monday 8 April 7pm
Jane Austen: her Life and Works
Susannah Fullerton

Susannah shares her passion for Austen's novels, her interest in her life and times. Readings will remind audiences just how amusing Austen's writing can be.

Monday 13 May 7pm
Bottoms Up! A History of Wine
Andy McConnell

This talk visits the ancient world, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance and 18th century Britain, culminating today, when more wine is being consumed than ever.

Monday 15 July 7pm
The architecture of Mughal India John Stevens

A tour of some of India's most beautiful buildings gives insight into the historical and colourful personalities involved in their construction.

Monday 12 August 7pm
Go with the flow: Art Nouveau
Vivienne Lawes

The art nouveau style was characterised by sinuous lines and whip-lash curves. The style revolutionised the 19th century and came to define the Belle Époque era.

Monday 16 September 7pm
Breeches, Bonnets & Bags
Rosalind Whyte

Portraits provide a fascinating insight into the changing styles of dress over the decades. Have fun exploring extremes in styles of fashion from the 16th century to the 19th century.

Monday 21 October 7pm
Matisse: Simple Beauty
Paul Chapman

Henri Matisse was a critically acclaimed artist of the 20th century and an inspiration to countless generations of painters that followed.
