

Youth Arts Award ArtsNational Perth

ArtsNational Perth Youth Arts Award recognises and supports young Perth artists. ArtsNational Perth offers opportunities to students, young artists and performers to discover and develop their abilities. From pre-school to tertiary, already skilled or just beginning, in literature, music, dance, photography, design. Our aim is to help ensure young people have avenues to participate and appreciate the arts by being involved in a variety of ways.

In 2025 we awarded $5000 to Lincoln Fuller Hill, a passionate accomplished Edith Cowan University student and recipient of the University's Future Talent Award. The award was presented to Lincoln on the opening night of the Through the Lens exhibition held at Edith Cowan University's (ECU's) Mount Lawley Campus. The exhibition chronicled the Mount Lawley campus prior to its' move to the Perth CBD with the aim of documenting and interpreting its architecture, natural environment, and creative energy through photography.

At each ArtsNational Perth lecture raffle tickets are sold, and the profits are allocated to the Youth Arts Award to support a young artist or organisation dedicated to supporting young artists.

The ArtsNational Perth Youth Arts Award is organised by ArtsNational Perth, a not-for-profit organisation that promotes the appreciation and study of the arts.

If you know of an organisation or individual who may benefit from the Youth Arts Award, please get in touch by emailing youtharts@artsnationalperth.au
